Missouri Archers Shine at the 2015 World Vegas Shoot in Las Vegas, Nevada

Once again, Missouri Bow Hunters was well represented in Las Vegas in early February at the World Vegas Shoot. The event was a huge success with more than 2500 Shooters from more than 40 countries participated in the event.

Not only was MBH represented by adult shooters, our young people really shined. Sebastian Cooper took the new Junior Professional Division by storm! A total of 57 of the best Junior Professional Shooters (age 15-17) from 5 countries participated in the event. Sebastian earned 2nd place after an intense Shoot-Off for the Championship. He also took home a $2,000 check for his efforts!

Sebastian is the son of Parker Cooper, and is a Junior at Westran High School in Huntsville. Sebastian takes his archery very seriously, he is a bow technician for East Fork Archery, a Level 1 Archery Instructor and a member of the East Fork Rock'n Shots JOAD program.

Brooke Miller, of Lewiston, earned a 3rd place score in the Youth Female Freestyle Division. Brooke is the daughter of Kevin and Lori Miller, and is a freshman at Highland High School in rural Lewis County, Missouri.

Other Youth and Young Adult winners were: Hunter Gwinner, of Huntsville, earning 4th in the Youth Male Freestyle Division; Nick Younger of Kansas City, finished 33rd in the Youth Male Freestyle Division. The men of MBH didn't disappoint either. Out of 262 shooters in the Championship Freestyle group, MBH was represented by Nshan Thompson, Sam Wolthuis, Richard Potter and Dan Jasa. Jackie White, Chris Berry and Jim Forbes represented Missouri in Senior Championship Freestyle.

East Fork Archery Staff Shooter, Paul Penrod (Moberly, MO) finished in 48th place out of 877 international Competitors in the Freestyle Flights Division.

These people and the others who attended the Vegas Shoot continued to do well with the Missouri State Indoor Championship at Linn, Missouri, and at the NFAA Indoor Nationals being held in Louisville, Kentucky.

A Note from the President

The indoor target season, while winding down has been at its peak the last two months. With Vegas, NFAA Midwest sectionals at Performance Archery and local club shoots throughout the state, the 50th Anniversary Celebration at the MBH State Indoor Championship and finally the NFAA National Indoor Championship in Louisville, Kentucky. Now, with the weather cooperating 3D shoots are an every weekend event.

The officers and committee chairs of MBH did an amazing job putting on the State Indoor Championship on March 7 and 8 at the Linn Tech Vocational College. The 50th Anniversary Celebration was kicked off as shooters checked in before shooting with "gift bags" for all shooters. The addition of banners for the clubs and ranges along with a special 50th Anniversary banner hanging from the railings above the gym floor set the stage for a great weekend. A big thank you to my wife Candy for her work creating the special logo, coordinating the purchase of the gift bag contents and getting the banners made and printed, all in time for the tournament.

We had right at 300 shooters for the individual tournaments, and added more for those who only came to shoot in the team shoot. From the time I became involved in archery and Missouri Bow Hunters, the State Indoor Championship was what you worked for all indoor season. Every practice session, league and local tournament, was in preparation for the State Indoor. tournament. the thought was I am getting ready for State.

Many make their hotel reservations for next year's tournament before the current tournament is over. That date is marked on the calendar a year in advance and placed on the refrigerator for all to see.

The MBH State Indoor is special because you are shooting with friends that you only see a couple times a year, at archery tournaments. These friends are also your rivals that you are shooting against. It doesn't matter if you are on the championship bale or battling for 2nd and 3rd in the second flight, competition is competition. Bragging rights are important, trophies and medals are nice but bragging rights for the rest of the year very important.

We all can't be champions and that is good it keeps us working toward that goal. I have seen archers shoot their personal best at this tournament and have felt like they just won it all. We will have first time shooters, old shooters, those that have every intention of winning their class, and the archers that come to see old friends shoot some arrows and have a good time. I hope everyone has a good time because that is what archery is all about, having fun.

You'll Always Remember the First Time!

Jeff Blystone

Missouri Bow Hunters Association and United Bow Hunters of Missouri member

It was a beautiful fall morning back in October of 1980. It was October 10th at 8:20am to be exact. I was a 22 year old beginning bowhunter with my state of the art Bear Whitetail Hunter Compound Bow, Easton Gamegetter Arrows, tipped with Bear Razorheads sitting in a homemade wooden treestand in Morgan County when that spike buck suddenly appeared right under me. I don't remember drawing or aiming at that buck but I do remember watching him run away with my arrow in him and thinking "oh no he's running awfully fast and doesn't look to hurt to me". Then I heard him crash. It took a bit for me to climb down and make my way over to my first ever deer kill. I couldn't believe I had actually done it and neither did my Dad or Brother until I showed them. They had been Turkey hunting without any success that morning but my harvest made for a great day of celebration.

For some reason I didn't realize how special that morning was. By the next season I was married, working long hours while saving to build a house and before I knew it I had a new family and all of the obligations that go with that. I don't remember getting to Archery hunt again until the 1992. That's when I purchase a Martin- Hunter Recurve, 62" long with a draw weight of 55 pounds. I bought that bow at KC Archery from Gene Towne. I didn't know Gene at the time but would get to know him and actually shot a few tournaments with him in the early 2000's. Gene was a great traditional target archer winning several championships over the years and I learned a lot from him. Sadly Gene passed away a few years ago. Anyway I did hunt with my recurve unsuccessfully for a couple years and then got away from the recurve and started using a compound bow again. I killed my second deer in 2001 a full 22 years after my first success. I have killed many whitetails, a few turkeys, and even an elk with my compounds over the years and enjoyed each and every hunt with the wheeled wonders. But always on my mind was the goal of harvesting a deer with that Martin Recurve.

That brings us to my second FIRST TIME. I finally made the commitment this past December to hunt with the recurve again. After years of failure along with some success my skills at getting close to game had been refined to the point where I actually felt some confidence in making a shot with traditional equipment. The deer would need to be at 20 yards or closer, any farther away than that and my accuracy was not that great. I had a couple of close calls in December but the deer either spotted me when I drew or didn't present a good angle for the shot but on January 8, 2015 it all came together. It was a cold clear evening hunting along the Missouri river in Jackson County.

There was a little snow on the ground and it was the first day that week when temperatures climbed above 20 degrees. I was in the right spot that evening and I'd only been in the treestand for 15 minutes when I started seeing bucks. As often happens that time of year, the deer are grouped up in small herds and a herd of bucks was traveling through the woods about 70 yards away from me. I saw eight different bucks that evening. I spent the next 40 minutes watching and blowing my grunt call at every buck I saw trying to entice one to come my way. I guess one of those bucks finally got curious because he started heading my way. I was ready when he came down the trail and stopped broadside at 15 yards. This time I do remember drawing slowly and picking a spot right behind his left shoulder. At the release I watched my Easton XX75-2117 arrow tipped with a Magnus Stinger broadhead bury into the exact spot I was focusing on. The arrow stopped in the buck's offside shoulder breaking his right front leg. The deer spun around and went back down the trail but I knew the shot was good and the buck wouldn't go far. It has been a long time since I've had that feeling you get when you accomplish a lifetime goal and I will always remember January 8, 2015 at 4:40pm as my second first time archery deer harvest!

Conservation Day at the Capitol

Mark your calendar to attend the inaugural Conservation Day at the Capitol on April 2, 2015 at the Missouri State Capitol from 6 am to 5 pm.

This event has been designed to bring conservationists from all across Missouri together at the Capitol for a day of promoting and supporting our natural resources and outdoor heritage.

We have reserved the entire 3rd floor Rotunda and have table spaces available for up to 25 affiliate organizations. There is no fee and the spaces will go on a first come first serve basis to CFM Affiliates, so call our office today to make sure your organization secures one of the available spaces.

"Ducks Unlimited looks forward to participating in Conservation Day at the Capitol. This is a great opportunity for citizens to meet with and speak to their legislators. It is also a great opportunity for conservation organizations to educate the public about their specific missions," said Mark Flaspohler, Manager of Conservation Programs for Ducks Unlimited.

The Morning Shag with Shags and Trevor (KCMQ 96.7) will be broadcasting their popular morning show live from the Capitol from 6 a.m. until 10 a.m. We anticipate additional radio shows and a strong media presence.

This event is for educational and informative purposes. We hope citizens and legislators alike will tour the affiliate booths to learn about the diverse outdoor passions of Missourians. Citizens will have a chance to meet with their legislators and thank them for protecting conservation in Missouri.

A number of college students are working hard to build a communication network to promote this event to the universities and colleges of Missouri. They are organizing buses, which will transport hundreds of students to the Capitol from numerous schools across the state.

Richard earned 2nd place in the Professional Freestyle Division shooting 600 with 118 x's.

East Fork Rock'n Shots JOAD members Jordan and Justin Dearman (Jefferson City) placed 4th and 10th respectively in the Young Adult Female and Male Freestyle divisions.

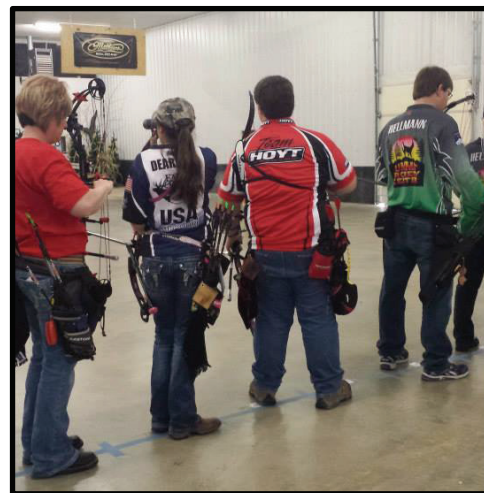

East Fork Staff Shooters Julie Griggs (Hardin, MO) finished 3rd in the Female Freestyle Division and husband, Vince Griggs finished 10th in the 2nd flight for the Male Freestyle Division.

News from Nodaho Bowhunters

Nodaho Bow Hunters held their 300 Round or 360 Vegas Round tournament on January 10 & 11 with a wonderful crowd of 58 archers. Some pretty impressive scores were turned in with results posted on our web site and Facebook.

It is a busy time for the indoor archery season with leagues winding down, Sectionals done and State and Nationals coming up in the very near future. Nodaho Bow Hunters also held an extra shoot on February 28 and March 1 in preparation for the State Tournament with 42 archers participating. We were happy to have that turnout in spite of questionable weather.

I think everyone is ready for Spring, 3-D and Field archery! Our first 3-D shoot will be our "marked yardage" shoot on April 12. In the past, we have marked the yardage on the stake, but like last year, we are encouraging everyone to bring their range finders. We feel this will help people "rediscover" their yardage estimation for 3-D season. We do want to emphasize that this (and our September 13 shoot) will be the ONLY time range finders will be allowed on the range during a tournament.

Hope to see you soon!
Jeanette Brookshier, Secretary

Aaron McCormick, a member of MBH and Nodaho Bow Hunters, is shown with his Robinhood arrows shot during league at the range. To make it even more special, Aaron shoots a recurve bow.
