First I would like to thank the following members for submitting articles for the March Release; Christian Clark, LeAnn Drake and Dantin McBee. They did an outstanding job of sharing their experiences of shooting a popular archery event.

I would also like to thank IBH for hosting the State Indoor. They did an excellent job and the tournament ran smoothly. For those of our members that attended give yourself a big hand. We are working on a venue for the State Outdoor and NODAHOW Bowhunters will be hosting the State 3D on June 10th (more info to come). We are still looking for a club to host the State 600, if interested fill out the tournament bid and submit to the MBH Secretary.

The tournament bid form can be found in this publication.

The weather is starting to make it pleasant enough to shoot outside. I know several 3D shoots have already been shot. If you haven't tried field, think about giving it a try. It can help you hone your skills and help with judging distances. Like 3D you learn how to adjust or uphill/downhill shots, judging across creeks or valleys and learning how to shoot on a slope.

The RELEASE is published monthly and is viewable on the Missouri Bow Hunters Website, and on Facebook. MBH members can have it e-mailed to them by providing an e-mail address on their membership application.

CONGRATULATIONS LEANN

CONSERVATION COMMITTEE

The Conservation Federation of Missouri held it's Awards Banquet on Friday night of the 87th Annual Convention held this year at Margaritaville Lake of the Ozarks.

CFM Members Nathan "Shags" McLeod and Trevor Morgan emceed the event. Shags & Trevor are morning show DJ's on the radio station 96.7 KCMQ in Columbia, MO. They are also former CFM Award winners for Conservation Communicators of the year. This year CFM awarded eight students scholarships and seven youth with Student Conservation Awards. 14 more conservation awards were handed out in categories in education, forests, water, wildlife, and legislators.

Saturday's activities agency updates from Missouri Department of Conservation and Missouri State Parks. There were education seminars on fish, birds, NASP archery, photography, pollinators, and relevancy.

That evening a social hour happened where you could view and place bids on the hundreds of silent auction items while enjoying some St James Winery wine or some craft beer from Public House Brewing Company.

Say hello to 2022 Miss Missouri Clare Marie Kuebler and admire her mink fur vest with otter fur collar donated to her by the Missouri Trappers Association which is one of the almost 100 CFM Affiliate Organizations.

Next came a great dinner and then the banquet spotlight, an enthusiastic speech given by former Missouri Governor Jay Nixon.

After dinner and the speech came the live auction. About 25 items were auctioned off including a Redneck Blind, Doolittle Trailer, Black Widow Bow, some CZ firearms, and several vacation adventure trips.

Silent Auction was closed and the raffle winners were drawn for some firearms, smoked ribs, RTC Cooler, Sprit Wagon, and a $1000 Bass Pro Gift Card. It was a fun evening eating, drinking and socializing with a bunch of outdoor, conservation minded folks.

Sunday morning, I attended the CFM Board meeting where new officers and board members were sworn in replacing those that's terms had expired. We spent a couple of hours in that board meeting taking care of some business and planning future activities.

If you have never attended a CFM Annual Convention I think you would find it fun and worth your while.

This weekend is CFM's biggest fundraising event so when you attend next year just keep in mind that you dollars spent at the convention are put to good use supporting "The Voice for Missouri Outdoors" as well as learning about various outdoor activities while communicating with like minded individuals from the world of Missouri Outdoors.

The best place to learn more about The Missouri Conservation Federation or to become a member is at the website [CFM Home - Conservation Federation of Missouri \(confedmo.org\)](http://CFM Home - Conservation Federation of Missouri (confedmo.org))
